Motherhood Devine

We speak of Motherhood being divine but few of us realize just what motherhood means to women. Those of us who have been denied this greatest of all honor will never know just what a great blessing has been denied them.

While the childless woman either goes out for a social evening or sits alone with her husband at home while he reads the paper until time to retire, the mother draws baby's head to her breast and the touch of its little hands draws all her little daily troubles and worries from her and leaves such a quiet restful feeling, which is simply the mother-love in the heart.

Then the pleasure of disrobing baby and putting him to bed is another divine joy and the entire night is a restful paradise to the mother who watches over her sleeping treasure.

How soothing to awake in the night and hear baby's little short panting breaths and feel his soft little body nestled closely to you.

Even if he is restless and keeps his little pink heels going all night and sometimes on your back. It is yet a pleasure, and you will gladly give him nearly the entire bed if he persists in lying acrosswise or endwise; and he can squirm all through the night and travel all over the bed, both under and outside of the covering, yet such is mother-love that he is employed even so and we gather him into our arms and soothe him to sleep and rest the better for the having of him.

And when the little chap snuggles up to you and goes to sleep with his velvety cheek close to your own and one of his warm soft hands around your neck, your heart is filled to overflowing with mother-love and all your troubles and worries seem drawn from you "as it were" and you drop off to sleep in an atmosphere of divine love.

Awakened early by baby's kisses whom you find sitting on your pillow looking so bright and happy that it makes your heart glad of him.

After the morning romp baby is dressed and is mother's joy and comfort during the day while the father is at work caring for his treasures which he gladly hurries home to.

Later the interesting school days of our children and all their hopes and joys of later years are a source of interest and divine solicitude to the mother.

Today mothers all over our beautiful country are sacrificing their sons to this terrible war and still their grief is a divine one which follows her child to far-off France and seems to cast a halo of home and mother-love around the lad. As old age comes to the childless woman her loss is felt more and more. Of what use to her are riches with no children to share them? She goes down to her grave with no hand of children to sustain her through her great trial.

While the mother who has fulfilled life's divine mission, passes over surrounded by her children whose loving hands follow her to life's very end.

Mrs. Neil Gilmore, Shiloh, Mich.

Renown "Underfeed" Range is the only real improvement made in range construction in 25 years.

The Coal is fed under the fire and the smoke, gas and soot are consumed.

Will positively save 25% or more on fuel bills.

The "Underfeed" principle is the only scientific way of burning soft coal. The fuel being fed under the fire, all products of combustion (gas and smoke) are forced to pass through the red hot coals, and they are converted into a blazing flame, producing a strong even heat at all times.

Don't Smother Your Fire by Putting Soft Coal on Top of It

Use the "Underfeed" Method

This Range, with the entire front, finished in Black Nickel and the top Ground Polished and Buffed, making it smooth as glass, is the handsomest stove ever turned out of a stove factory
